*Screening procedures are governed by federal law and designed to detect threats to aviation security. TSA officers do not search for marijuana or other drugs; however, if an item is found that may violate federal law during security screening, TSA will refer the matter to law enforcement. Whether or not marijuana is considered medical marijuana federal law provides no basis to treat medical marijuana differently than non-medical marijuana.

**Snow globes that appear to contain less than 3.4 ounces (approximately tennis ball size) will be permitted if the entire snow globe, including the base, is able to fit in the same one clear, plastic, quart-sized, re-sealable bag, as the passenger's other liquids, such as shampoo, toothpaste and cosmetics.

*** Illegal controlled substances: TSA's screening procedures, which are governed by federal law, are focused on security and are designed to detect potential threats to aviation and passengers. As has always been the case, if during the security screening procedures an officer discovers an item that may violate federal law, TSA refers the matter to law enforcement. Law enforcement officials will determine if further action is appropriate.

TSA Prohibited Items List

The TSA Prohibited Items List is not intended to be all-inclusive and is updated as necessary. To ensure a traveler's security, Transportation Security Officers (TSOs) may determine that an item not on the Prohibited Items List is prohibited.

The final decision rests with TSA on whether to allow any items through security checkpoints.

Travelers are encouraged to check with their airline or travel agent for policies as individual airlines may place additional restrictions on any item.

Please note that some items are illegal in certain states and will be subject to state laws. It is the traveler's responsibility to be aware of state laws in both origination and destination cities.

Please pay careful attention to the "NOTE" included at the bottom of each section – they contain important information about restrictions and exceptions.
